

Occupational therapists (OTs) treat injured, ill, or disabled patients through the therapeutic use of everyday activities. They help these patients develop, reaAEL

Occupational Therapy Centralized Application Service (OTCAS); <http://otcas.liasoncas.org/> outlines critical dates for the application cycle; check with the application service and specific OT schools of interest for deadlines.