

Physician assistants (PAs) practice medicine on teams with physicians, surgeons, and other healthcare workers. They examine, diagnose, and treat patients and can prescribe medication.

The Centralized Application Service for Physician Assistants (CASPA) is the application processing service for PA applicants. Check with the application service and individual schools of interest for deadlines.

- Centralized Application Service for Physician Assistants (CASPA; www.caspaonline.org)
- Scho [REDACTED]